It is with immense pleasure that I extend my best wishes to the Antar Rashtriya Sahayog Parishad on the special occasion of the commemoration of the Birth Centenary of Shri Baleshwar Agrawal.

Baleshwar Ji is an acclaimed Goodwill Ambassador who devoted his whole life to the cause of Indian Diaspora. Founder of the Antar Rashtriya Sahayog Parishad and member of the High-Level Committee on Indian Diaspora, he was instrumental in the introduction of groundbreaking initiatives like the Pravasi Bhartiya Diwas, the PIO and OCI Card Scheme, among others.

Baleshwar Ji was a close friend of Mauritius where he has many well-wishers from all walks of life, especially those of Indian origin. He was also a personal friend of the former Prime Minister and former President of the Republic of Mauritius, late Sir Anerood Jugnauth. The latter being himself, the first recipient of the Pravasi Bharatiya Samman Award, in 2003. It is worth highlighting that the Pravasi Bhawan which was the cherished dream of Baleshwar ji was inaugurated by late Sir Anerood Jugnauth in December 2009.

The Republic of Mauritius pays a solemn tribute to Shri Baleshwar Agrawal and wish the Antar Rashtriya Sahayog Parishad greater success in its noble pursuits.

As an ardent believer of the philosophy of vasudhaiva kutumbakam, the Parishad has my unconditional support in its noble mission of promoting universal brotherhood and harmony.

THE OCCASION OF THE CONCLUDING CEREMONY OF THE

PROGRAMME

My dear fellow Indians,
Members of Indian Diaspora,

Namaskar,

On behalf of the Government of the Republic of Suriname and on my own behalf, I am honored to extend our sincere and warmest congratulations and well-wishes on the historic occasion of late Shri Baleshwar Agrawal Birth Centenary Year.

Suriname and India share a strong and friendly relationship. India is a strong pillar in our bilateral cooperation and is nurtured through a strong presence of Indian Diaspora.

Therefore, it is such a privilege to pay our tribute to the late Shri Baleshwar Agrawal. Mr. Agrawal was the founder secretary-general of Antar-Rashtriya Sahayog Parishad (Indian Council for International Cooperation).

He kept on working for the welfare of Indian Diaspora and was the guiding spirit for expanding strong Indian Diaspora around the world.

REPUBLIC OF SURINAME

Shri Baleshwar Agrawal was a man who infallibly implemented his vision with a passion. He will be remembered by generations as an icon of outstanding and dynamic social engineering in India.

His dedication and invaluable contribution to the country's sociopolitical fabric, journalistic works and the bond he created between India and its Diaspora cannot easily be duplicated.

The Indian Diaspora is the second largest diaspora in the world, and is counted among the most successful expat communities anywhere in the world.

Indian Diaspora's have emerged as a powerful entity since they are recognized as 'soft power' in the realm of foreign policy strategy and also as an agent or catalyst of economic development of countries of origin besides their active role in the host countries.

Today, they occupy high positions in the fields of politics, economy, industry, technology and education.

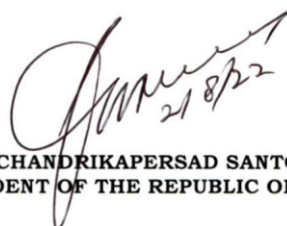

The Indian business people who are strengthening trade & economic partnerships. They are residing all across the world and are the true ambassadors of the great culture of their country. The success stories of our diaspora are countless.

We have to create a government-diaspora collaboration for cultural promotion abroad more effective, focused and self sustaining, with a special emphasis on engaging with the youth. Let the diaspora take a greater ownership of the process.

Diaspora communities can make an enormous contribution to the development of their country of origin. They can fulfill a possible 'bridging function' in bilateral relations.

Finally, the Government and People of the Republic of Suriname profoundly wish to express their gratitude to the Government and People of the Republic of India on the commemoration of Shri Baleshwar Agrawal Ji and his contribution to the Indian Community.

Please accept, the assurances of my highest esteem and consideration.

Message to commemorate the birth centenary of Shri Baleshwar Agrawal

It is a privilege to pay homage to Shri Baleshwar Agrawal in this souvenir publication commemorating the centenary of his birth.

We in the Diaspora remember Shri Agrawal for his passionate vision and commitment to bridging the gap between India and its diaspora. He spent the best part of his public career fostering closer relations between the two.

I have had close and cordial relations with Shri Agrawal since he first visited Fiji on a fact-finding mission soon after the 1987 racist coups which deposed a legitimately elected government of which I was Finance Minister. Since then, he has paid several visits to Fiji to keep in touch with the diaspora here.

He is remembered as a friend, advocate and defender of the rights and well-being of Girmitya Pravasi Indians. Baleshwarji identified himself with their struggle for equality and recognition in their adopted homeland and effectively championed their cause with successive Governments of India.

As part of this mission, he played an influential role in the creation of a separate Ministry of Overseas Indian Affairs and for the inauguration of the annual Pravasi Bharatiya Divas. He was the founder member and general secretary of the Antar-Rashtriya Sahayog Parishad (ARSP), is credited with influencing the establishment of GOPIO and the recognition given to overseas Indians through the issue of PIO cards. bequeathed

Shri Agrawal left us in May 2013 but the important legacy of his lifetime achievement in forging close relations between India and her Diaspora, lives on.

My Dear Shri Gopal Arora,

My humblest apologies for not responding to your request earlier, the reason being that I had been in London for medical reasons, and I have just returned home.

Thank you for the great honour you have bestowed upon me by granting me the privilege of contributing on this auspicious occasion of the celebration of the late Shri Baleshwar Agrawal, founder of AntarRasthriyaSahayogParishad-Bharat(ARSP), on the occasion of the 100th birth centenary of this indefatigable human being in his devotion to the welfare of Indians, not only in India but internationally.

It was a pleasure and privilege to have known and met such an inspiring man who I am happy and proud to have shared a long and cordial friendship. His lifelong dedication to national service will never be forgotten and his pivotal role and work in building a bridge between Mother India and the diaspora was invaluable.

As the grandson of Indians who were brought from India to Trinidad to work on the sugar plantations it was very important for us to maintain our cultural roots with its vast knowledge of the great literary works such as the Vedas, the Ramayan and the Bhagavad Gita.

Had it not been for the work and efforts of Shri Baleshwar Ji I would have lost my culture and would have known nothing of the awe-inspiring deeds of our ancestors. But even more important I would not have known of the Hanuman Chalisa which today I can recite from memory.

The importance of one's cultural identity cannot be underestimated. It helps to build your personal growth and well-being, and most importantly, helps us to connect with each other. In this light Shri Baleshwar, has excelled and achieved what many of us can only dream about.

It is my hope that the present and future members of the ARSP will continue the invaluable work and contributions made by the late Shri Baleshwar Agrawal with the same dedication, love and commitment he showed throughout his life.

Sincerely,
Dr. Basdeo Panday

CEREMONY OF THE LATE SHRI BALESHWAR AGRAWAL'S BIRTH CENTENARY
PROGRAMME

It is my honour and privilege to bring greetings on the occasion of the concluding ceremony of the Late Shri Baleshwar Agrawal's Birth Centenary Programme.

Over the course of his life, Shri Baleshwar Agrawal played a pivotal role in expanding India's outreach to the diaspora around the world, including here in Trinidad and Tobago.

As Secretary General of Antar Rashtriya Sahayog Parishad (ARSP), and as a member of the High-Level Committee on Indian Diaspora, he was instrumental in essential initiatives like Pravasi Bharatiya Diwas, Know India Program, and Know your Roots programmes. Many young people in Trinidad and Tobago have benefitted from some of these programmes, strengthening our connection to our shared history and cultural traditions.

Baleshwar Ji demonstrated a commitment to service to his country and to his fellow man, seeking always to the relationship between the diaspora and the Motherland. He was also instrumental in building the 'Hindusthan Samachar', India's first multilingual news agency, and remains a strong influence and inspiration to many journalists in India to this day.

I am honoured to have known Shri Baleshwar Agrawal, and when I was Prime Minister of Trinidad and Tobago, I sought to advance the strong and productive relationship between our two countries.

Today, the descendants of the Indian migrants who came to our country one hundred and seventy-seven years ago are successful in every aspect of our society. We have much to be thankful for, and proud of. They have helped to build a nation-state rich in culture and proud of its diversity.

We look to persons like Shri Baleshwar Agrawal for inspiration to work together with strength, determination and resolve to build a bright future for our country.

“HARNESSING THE TRADE WINDS: THE STORY OF THE CENTURIES OLD INDIAN TRADE WITH EAST AFRICA, USING THE MONSOON WINDS”

Dr Ruchi Verma
Research Fellow
DRRC - ARSP

The Diaspora Research and Resource Centre (DRRC) - Antar Rashtriya Sahayog Parishad (ARSP) organised a Book discussion on “Harnessing the Trade Winds: The Story of the Centuries Old Indian Trade with East Africa, using the Monsoon Winds” authored by Blanche Rocha D'Souza on 28th of July 2022. The event was chaired by Dr Markandey Rai, Chairperson, Foreign Affairs Committee (FAC)-ARSP. The book discussion followed with comments by a panel consisting of Ambassador Skand Ranjan Tayal, Former Diplomat and President, India-ROK Friendship Society, Dr Nivedita Ray, Director (Research), ICWA, Ms. Ruchita Beri, Senior Research Associate, MP-IDSA, and Dr Ruchi Verma, Research Fellow, DRRC-ARSP. Ambassador Virendra Gupta, President, ARSP, Shri Shyam Parande, Secretary General, ARSP, Shri Narayan Kumar, Hon. Director, ARSP also presented their views. Smt. Minu Agarwal, British National of Indian origin who has financially supported the reprinting of this important book in India has also graced the event with her presence and shared her views. Prof Gopal Arora, Secretary, ARSP moderated the session.

Shri Shyam Parande highlighted that there is a need for change in the discourse of historiography. Colonisers have written the history the way it has suited them. The time has come to deconstruct and to reconstruct history and this book is a way forward.

Ambassador Virendra Gupta began his presentation by stating that the book was well researched and has highlighted the connection of the Indian diaspora with Africa. He added that the western writers and the Arabs have often downplayed India's linkages with Africa. He argued that the book has been written with good intentions for the Indians in Africa. Also, about the Indian experience with the European colonisers and their actions against Indians. Amb Gupta highlighted that Indians not only contributed to trade between India and Africa but also contributed immensely towards the socio-economic development of Africa. He also commented that the present status of Indians in Africa is a tribute to the values that their forefathers instilled in them. Ambassador Skand Ranjan Tayal began his presentation by stating that the book is an important contribution on identifying the role of the Indian diaspora in Africa. Amb Tayal highlighted that people of the Indian sub-continent have often been poor chroniclers of history, leading to the loss of valuable history in time. He stated that the author points out that the Indian traders who went to East Africa were illiterate yet very skilful in mental maths and account keeping. He mentioned that the book has several pages of valuable references, including archival texts, books, official records and gazettes, memoirs, etc, thereby reflecting an arduous and patient work put in by the author. Amb Tayal underlined the fact that the author convincingly establishes that trade existed between the West Indian and East African coast for centuries. Indian merchants dominated the trade until the Europeans advent in the 17th century. The book also showcases how Zanzibar became a centre for the spice trade.

Amb Tayal also highlighted the harmonious relationship shared between the Indians and the Arab diaspora. Indian traders and financiers played a vital role in the rise of Zanzibar as a trade centre, but with the entry of Europeans into Zanzibarthe role of Indians in trade and administration were gradually reduced. He also commented about the Indian indentured labourers brought to Africa by the European colonialists. Commenting about the politics, he talked about the formation of the first Indian political organisation in Africa i.e. the Mombassa Indian Association in 1900 and the East African Indian national congress in 1914, perhaps inspired by the Indian political movements. Amb Tayal also mentioned about the fuelling of rifts between Indians and Africans by the Europeans to meet their interests. Concluding his remarks, he opined that the book fills a significant gap and explains the role of the Indian diaspora in Africa in trade and other sectors. But further research is required to substantiate analysis undertaken by the author.

Dr Ruchi Verma in her presentation highlighted that this book is important as the author has brought into forefront the story of ancient Indian Trade ties with Eastern Africa that have existed for three millennia. This book is an attempt to kindle in the Indian diaspora a justifiable pride in the achievements of its fore bearers in East Africa. Indeed in African history, the contribution of Indian traders in African civilisation has not been given much importance; rather it appears to be negligible. Dr Verma also mentioned that this book challenges the narrative established by the Western and European writers that the Indians were also the exploiters of Africans. Author claimed that despite all the discrimination, Indians have cordial relations with Africans in every course of time. She also highlighted that a very interesting find in the book is an elaborate list of plants introduced in Africa by Asia at different periods of history which shows how Asians and particularly Indians have influenced the agricultural system of Africa. An alternative research on how the African agricultural system influenced Indian agriculture would also be an interesting take. In conclusion, Dr Verma mentions that this book fills an important gap in our understanding of Indians role in building prosperity in many African countries.

Ms Ruchita Beri began her presentation by stating the importance of India- Africa ties by giving reference of CII-Exim Bank India-Africa Conclave held in July. She stated that there has been a substantive positive outlook towards Africa as Prime Minister Modi declared the relationship with Africa a priority. She mentioned that the role of history should be acknowledged in showcasing the evolution of India-Africa relations. Ms Beri also highlighted that in the book there is reference that Ethiopian system of vowels represents Sanskrit influence. She underscored the fact that there were many cultural linkages between India and Africa in the ancient times, such as the connection with Ancient Africa through the Rig Veda and the Puranas. She also stated that misinformation was spread by western writers saying that the development of Africa was done more by the Europeans. Ms Beri also point out that despite of the challenges author had to face in terms of sources, rely on diverse sources including some non-academic books and reports, author has managed to done a commendable job. She also highlighted that the author has refuted the claim made by western writers that Indians were also involved in the slave trade. In conclusion, Ms Beri stated that the book is a welcome edition for people researching on India-Africa studies and diaspora studies.

Dr Nivedita Ray in her presentation pointed out that India-Africa linkage especially with East Africa is special and important due to the people to people connect. She pointed out that Indian scholarship on diaspora usually starts from colonial times but not much reflection has been given on historical background since it depends on European or western writers sources. This book is important in a sense as it has given the discourse from an Indian perspective. This publication has given a certain perspective to the history which is not very well documented but when there is no written evidence, the unscholarly kinds of works also became important. Dr Ray also mentions that this book has very emphatically brought out the fact about India-Africa agricultural ancient roots, thus giving us a peep into the aspect which has more potential and should be intensively studied. She also pointed out that this book raised important questions regarding the involvement of Indians as financiers in slave trade and whether it was the trade links which attracted British towards East Africa. In conclusion, Dr Ray mentions that this book throws light on many aspects which need to be further researched. This book is an important contribution to the study of India-Africa relations and diaspora as a factor in it.

The discussion was followed by questions and answers. In the end, Dr Markandey Rai gave his chair/concluding remarks and thanked the speakers for their presentation. ■

गिरिजा कुमार माथुर

(22 अगस्त 1919 - 10 जनवरी 1994)

गिरिजा कुमार माथुर (22 अगस्त 1919 - 10 जनवरी 1994) एक कवि, नाटककार और समालोचक थे। गिरिजा कुमार माथुर का जन्म मध्य प्रदेश में हुआ। उनके पिता देवीचरण माथुर स्कूल अध्यापक थे, माता लक्ष्मीदेवी मालवा की रहने वाली थीं और शिक्षित थीं। गिरिजाकुमार की प्रारम्भिक शिक्षा घर पर ही हुई। उनके पिता ने घर ही अंग्रेजी, इतिहास, भूगोल आदि पढ़ाया। कॉलेज से इण्टरमीडिएट करने के बाद स्नातक की उपाधि के बाद उन्होंने वकालत की परीक्षा भी पास की। 1943 से 'ऑल इंडिया रेडियो' में अनेक महत्वपूर्ण पदों पर रहते हुए अंग्रेजी और उर्दू के वर्चस्व के बीच हिन्दी को पहचान दिलाई। लोकप्रिय रेडियो चैनल 'विविध भारती' उन्हीं की संकल्पना का मूर्त रूप है। माथुर जी दूरदर्शन के उप-महानिदेशक के पद से सेवानिवृत्त हुए। वे विद्रोही काव्य परम्परा के रचनाकार माखनलाल चतुर्वेदी, बालकृष्ण शर्मा नवीन आदि की रचनाओं से अत्यधिक प्रभावित हुए। उनकी रचना का प्रारम्भ द्वितीय विश्वयुद्ध की घटनाओं से उत्पन्न प्रतिक्रियाओं से युक्त है तथा भारत में चल रहे राष्ट्रीय स्वतंत्रता आन्दोलन से प्रभावित है। अज्ञेय द्वारा सम्पादित एवं प्रकाशित 'तारसप्तक' के सात कवियों में से एक कवि गिरिजाकुमार भी हैं। उनका ही लिखा एक भावान्तर गीत "हम होंगे कामयाब" समूह गान के रूप में अत्यंत लोकप्रिय है।

आज जीत की रात
पहरुए! सावधान रहना
खुले देश के द्वार
अचल दीपक समान रहना

प्रथम चरण है नए स्वर्ग का
है मंजिल का छोर
इस जनमंथन से उठ आई
पहली रत्न-हिलोर
अभी शेष है पूरी होना
जीवन-मुक्ता-डोर
क्योंकि नहीं मिट पाई दुख की
विगत साँवली कोर
ले युग की पतवार
बने अम्बुधि समान रहना।

विषम शृंखलाएँ टूटी हैं
खुली समस्त दिशाएँ
आज प्रभंजन बनकर चलतीं
युग-बंदिनी हवाएँ
प्रश्नचिह्न बन खड़ी हो गईं
यह सिमटी सीमाएँ
आज पुराने सिंहासन की
टूट रही प्रतिमाएँ
उठता है तूफान, इन्दु! तुम
दीप्तिमान रहना।

ऊँची हुई मशाल हमारी
आगे कठिन डगर है
शत्रु हट गया, लेकिन उसकी
छायाओं का डर है
शोषण से है मृत समाज
कमजोर हमारा घर है
किन्तु आ रहा नई जिन्दगी
